Eating out with young children can sometimes be stressful!
Make eating out fun with some of these tips!

- Bring a coloring book and crayons or a word search book for children to work on while they wait for their food.
- Play a game like "I Spy" or Tic Tac Toe.
- Bring a little snack for them to munch on if you're going out during a busy time when the wait for food might be too long for little ones to handle.
- Relax! No one expects your little one to sit silently when out. Enjoy your time out with your child. They're gaining valuable social skills when you take them out to eat!
